

FREE CLASS

A single guided session that turns a first visit into a clear next step.

THE FIRST IMPRESSION

One session sets the tone for everything after it: assessment, an intentional welcome, and a clear recommended path forward.

PRIVATE COACHING RESOURCE | VERSION 1.0

01 / PROGRAM IDENTITY

THE FREE CLASS

The Free Class is a guest's introduction to Echelon coaching, not a marketing gimmick. It is one real, coached session built to show a prospective member exactly what training with Echelon feels like.

It is not a discounted workout. It is a coach's honest assessment of a person, delivered in one session, ending in a clear recommendation.

WHAT THE GUEST RECEIVES

- A guided first session with a real Echelon coach, not a canned group class.
- A readiness conversation covering goals, training history, and anything Echelon should know before coaching them.
- A baseline movement assessment scaled to their current ability, not a test they can fail.
- A clear, personal recommendation for their next right step at Echelon.

COACHING BOUNDARIES

Screen for readiness before any loaded movement. Modify within scope and never diagnose. This is an introduction to coaching, not a full training session -- keep it welcoming, not exhausting. Refer out for anything beyond a fitness screening.

02 / DELIVERY SEQUENCE

FROM RESERVATION TO RECOMMENDATION

Complete these in order. Create a Coach Command task whenever a step needs follow-up.

STEP 1 CONFIRM

Confirm the reservation, the coach running the session, the time, and what to bring, 24 hours ahead when possible.

Send a short reminder with entry details and appropriate clothing.

Note anything already known about the guest's goals or limitations.

STEP 2 WELCOME & ASSESS

Open with a real conversation before any movement.

Ask about training background, current goals, and anything Echelon should know before coaching them.

Run a light baseline movement check -- enough to see how they move, not to fatigue them.

STEP 3 DELIVER THE SESSION

Coach the guest through a short, representative Echelon session.

Teach cues, offer modifications, and narrate why each piece matters.

Close with a direct conversation about what Echelon recommends for them specifically.

STEP 4 FOLLOW UP

Send a same-day thank-you message with their recommended path.

Create a 48-hour Coach Command task if they have not booked or replied.

Log the guest's goals and notes for the next coach who works with them.

03 / THE SESSION

ONE SESSION, AT A GLANCE

A Free Class runs about 45-55 minutes. Use this pacing as a guide, not a script.

PHASE	MINUTES	FOCUS
Welcome & Readiness	10	Introductions, goals, the readiness conversation.
Movement Assessment	10	Baseline movement check and scaling notes.
Guided Training	25	A representative Echelon session, coached in real time.
Recommendation & Close	10	Personal next-step recommendation and booking.

GUEST COMMUNICATION STARTERS

RESERVATION CONFIRMED

Your Free Class is confirmed for [day, date] at [time] with Coach [name]. Wear comfortable training clothes and bring water. Arrive 10 minutes early so we can talk through your goals before we start.

SAME-DAY THANK YOU

It was great coaching you today. Based on what we covered, I'd recommend [recommended program] as your next step -- here's why: [reason]. Let me know if you'd like to move forward or have any questions.

NO-BOOKING FOLLOW-UP (48 HR)

Wanted to follow up after your Free Class. If [recommended program] still feels right, I can get you started this week -- if your goals have shifted, let's talk through what would fit best.

A Free Class is not a sales pitch. It is a coach paying enough attention to tell someone the truth about their best next step.
